None

ARTICLE IV

Other lawful provisions, if any, for the conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the corporation, for its voluntary dissolution, or for limiting, defining, or regulating the powers of the corporation, or of its directors or members, or of any class of members, are as follows:

The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable provisions of Massachusetts General Laws, as amended from time to time, indemnify each person who is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is a director or officer of the corporation, against all expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement incurred by him or on his behalf in connection with such action, suit or proceeding and any appeal therefrom. However, that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of an officer or director (i) for any breach of the officer's or director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or (iii) for any transaction from which the officer or director derived an improper personal benefit.

The directors may make, amend, or repeal the Bylaws in whole or in part, except with respect to any provision of such Bylaws which by law or these Articles or the Bylaws requires action by the stockholders. The corporation, by vote of a majority of the stock outstanding and entitled to vote thereon, may (i) authorize any amendment to its Articles of organization pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws, as amended from time to time; (ii) authorize the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of its property and assets, including its goodwill, pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws, as amended from time to time; and (iii) approve an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to Massachusetts General Laws, as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE V

The by-laws of the corporation have been duly adopted and the initial directors, president, treasurer and clerk or other presiding, financial or recording officers, whose names are set out on the following page, have been duly elected.

If there are no provisions, state "None".*

Note: The preceding four (4) articles are considered to be permanent and may only be changed by filing appropriate Articles of Amendment.

ARTICLE VI
